

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

ALLAN PEACOCK
STREET LIGHTING

At Allan Peacock (Street Lighting) Ltd, we are committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all areas of our business and supply chains.

We fully support the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and take our responsibilities seriously.

Our Business

Allan Peacock is a trusted provider of street lighting and signage installation, maintenance, and related civil works across Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire, East Anglia, Greater London, and the Midlands.

We operate from our depot in Colmworth, Bedfordshire, with a dedicated team of office staff, engineers, and operatives.

Our Commitment

We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings.

We have zero tolerance for modern slavery or human trafficking and expect the same high standards from all our suppliers and subcontractors.

Supply Chain Management

Our supply chain is UK-based and carefully monitored. We conduct due diligence on new suppliers and reserve the right to terminate any business relationship if modern slavery concerns arise.

We regularly review our supplier contracts and encourage transparency throughout our operations.

Training and Awareness

All employees receive information about modern slavery risks during their induction. We also deliver regular Toolbox Talks to maintain awareness across our teams.

We are registered with the Supply Chain Sustainability School to ensure ongoing staff education on modern slavery topics.

Reporting Concerns

We have a designated Slavery Compliance Officer. Any concerns regarding potential modern slavery practices can be reported confidentially without fear of retaliation.